PUBLIC CONSTRUCTION REFORM MEETING TO BE HELD TO EDUCATE ABOUT OPPORTUNITIES

BOSTON – Senator Joan M. Menard (D-Fall River) is pleased to announce the Massachusetts Alliance for Small Contractors will be hosting a free informational outreach meeting for small, minority-owned, and women-owned businesses in order to fully explain and articulate the recent changes to the state's Public Construction Reform law. They will also be discussing the significant contracting opportunities that could be made available to small, minority-owned, and women-owned businesses in public construction.

“This is a great time to come and learn about the new laws, requirements and opportunities in the $1 billion spent annually in public construction,” remarked Senator Menard. “This is also a chance for minority-owned and women-owned businesses to expand their contracting opportunities by learning about special opportunities provided for them under state law.”

The session will be February 28th from 5-7pm at the UMass Dartmouth Professional & Continuing Education at 800 Purchase St. in New Bedford. Present at the meeting will be representatives from the Division of Capital Asset Management and Maintenance (DCAMM), Mass School Building Association, the State Office of Minority and Women Business, and MassAlliance. You can reserve your seat by calling Rick Lenihan at MassAlliance at 617-422-8158 or by logging on to www.MassAlliance.com.
